17. Advertising:

- A. Agent shall provide all images of Artist.
 - B. All advertising shall be submitted to Agent for approval prior to any publication.
 - C. No images shall be supplied and no advertisements shall be approved prior to receipt of the Deposit.
 - D. Any unauthorized advertisements shall incur a review fee of $300 per advertisement, which shall be due and payable prior to the Event.
18. Artist may cancel a performance within 24 hours, if he is in a life or death situation and under doctor's orders not to perform, for fear that it may damage his/her health. Along with any and all contractual obligations that arise or become due to any and all networks he/she may be associated with, which includes all filming and rehearsals that are required by the networks. Should this unlikely scenario occur, Artist must provide Promoter with a copy of a doctor's note on letterhead from a duly licensed physician to that effect. A make-up date can be arranged or all efforts could be made by Agent to find an equal substitute at the option of the Promoter. Rescheduling or replacement shall be the only obligation of Agent in this situation and there is no other liability, monetary or otherwise against Agent.
19. Should Artist fail to appear for the Event without proper authorization, the Artist shall be personally liable for any damages claimed by Promoter unless such failure to appear is due to a Force Majeure as defined below.
20. Neither party shall have any liability to the other if the performance of the Event is rendered impossible due to an act of god, weather, airline cancellation, war, fire, flood, famine, riots, epidemics, strike or work stoppages, an act or order of the public authority, act of terror, onsite mechanical failures, or other legitimate causes beyond the control of the parties (all taken together a "Force Majeure"). Should a Force Majeure scenario occur, the parties shall attempt, in good faith, to reschedule the performance for another mutually agreeable date and time. Should the parties be unable to reschedule this Agreement may be cancelled, upon written notification by either party and neither party shall have any other obligations or liabilities arising out of this Agreement. In the event of cancellation due to a Force Majeure, Promoter shall be refunded its deposit.
21. Any legal action brought under this Agreement shall be in a court of competent jurisdiction within the City and State of Florida and Promoter hereby consents to the jurisdiction and venue of any court of competent jurisdiction in the City and State of Florida. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Florida without regard to any conflicts of law provisions contained therein.
22. Artist and Agent hereby appoint the Secretary of State for the State of Florida as agent to accept legal process. Promoter hereby waives any claim against Agent and its employees should Artist default on any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
23. Should Promoter default on any terms and conditions of this Agreement, Promoter shall be liable for all court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to enforce this Agreement.
24. This Agreement may not be altered or amended unless in writing and signed by both parties.
25. This Agreement must be signed within 72 hours of the Effective Date (the "Due Date"). Agreements not signed and returned by the Due Date will be considered not accepted and rejected by Promoter and all reserved dates contemplated in the Agreement may no longer be available.
